One-stop shopping New Berlin shopping center to be completed by Christmas '75

by LUCAS HUTTON

It's official! The Berlin Command will have a new Shopping Center by Christmas 1975.

Construction on the new facility will begin early this summer, according to Major B. J. Branagan, construction engineer for the Engineer & Installation Division. The main exchange and an adjoining back-up warehouse will be built in the area at the south end of the existing shopping center. The new PX will be completed by December of 1975, and the warehouse will be completed the following year.

Once the new facility is ready, the present structure will be demolished and replaced with a "well-landscaped and relatively large" parking area for over 400 cars. The landscaping and parking area will be completed by 1977.

"MULTI-USE" BUILDINGS

On the opposite side of the parking area along Hüttenweg, a series of "multi-use buildings" will be constructed in 1976. These buildings will house a new snack bar and cafeteria, Foodland, beverage shop, Class VI store, Stars & Stripes book store, merchandise repair shop, American Express banking and travel agency offices, valet service pick-up point, Lackland Federal Credit Union offices and a washerette.

In addition to the retail store, the new PX will house barber and beauty shops, a florist, snack stand, optical shop and tailor shop in the facade area. Under the same roof will be a 4-Seasons shop and an audio store. The new facility will contain approximately 35,000 square feet of shopping space, compared with about 23,000 square feet in the present PX.

MORE WAREHOUSE SPACE

The new warehouse will have about 17,000 square feet of space, more than four times the space in the existing warehouse on Beeskowdamm. The fact that the warehouse will be adjacent to the new PX will greatly improve the availability of merchandise.

The entire complex will be constructed with the main exchange and the multi-use buildings facing each other across the parking area.

Lieutenant Colonel Booker T. McManus, commander of the Berlin Exchange Region, said it will be "a great asset to have all our facilities under one roof." Consolidating the now scattered EES facilities in the Command Headquarters area will "reduce the span of control," said McManus, and will simplify merchandising and shopping.

ONE-STOP SHOPPING

The new complex "will bring Berlin closer to one-stop shopping," added McManus, and will enable Berlin exchange personnel to direct their efforts "toward selling rather than moving things around."

Berlin EES shoppers now have to go to several scattered locations. The present main PX is on Clayallee; the 4-Seasons, Foodland and beverage shop are two blocks away on Saargemünder Strasse; and the furniture store is located at Andrews Barracks. Large household appliances sold at Andrews have to be stored at McNair Barracks.

PX BUILT IN 1946

The existing PX, known at one time as "Truman Hall," was built as an officers mess in 1946 with materials available at the time. Repeated faceliftings, said Branagan, have shown that the present structure "is not compatible with modern retail services." Further modernization of the existing structure would be economically infeasible.

Branagan said the new facility will be "one of the most modern shopping centers in Europe, if not in the world." Captain John J. Spath, plans officer at E&I, said the new structure will employ modern longsteel beam construction to produce an open and spacious shopping facility. The building will be fire-resistant and will be equipped with a sprinkler system.

CUSTOMER, EMPLOYEE COMFORT

A forced-air ventilation system will ensure customer and employee comfort.

The facility will be built by the German Construction Agency (GCA), the German government agency which is building the new $20 million U. S. Army Hospital Berlin. GCA will work under the guidance of the E&I Division.

Branagan said the new exchange will represent "the finest efforts of the engineers, the European Exchange System Headquarters and the GCA."

Planning for the project began in July 1973, with the help of EES headquarters in Munich. The entire project will cost over DM 12 million.

BUS TERMINAL TO BE CLOSED

The first step in the construction project will be taken probably next Wednesday with the closing of the bus terminal access road. This will be followed by the erection of a construction fence around the area bounded by the EES gas station access road, Argentinische Allee, Marshallstrasse, the commissary and the existing snack bar. This fence will enclose the site of the new PX and warehouse and a new transformer station to service the entire complex and ultimately other proposed construction in the area.

The present bus terminal will be demolished, and a new terminal will be built on Marshallstrasse close to what is now the commissary parking lot. Construction on the new terminal will begin this year. Until the bus terminal project is completed, military buses will pick up and discharge passengers at the entrance to the present PX.

Members of the command are asked to be patient with the inconveniences that will inevitably arise because of the construction. Some traffic re-routing is to be expected. For example, the one-way access road that runs parallel to Hüttenweg on the north side of the PX will become a two-way road.

COVERED WALKWAY TO BE BUILT

A narrow covered walkway will be constructed adjacent to the existing cafeteria to permit pedestrian access to the commissary, Class VI store, washerette and laundry pick-up points.

Branagan said that Major General Cecil W. Hospelhorn, commander of the Army & Air Force Exchange Service in Dallas, Texas, has been very enthusiastic about the Berlin project, AAFES will supply all interior furnishings and retail fixtures for the new facility.

There will be intense efforts made to preserve the trees that now stand in the construction area. The entire complex will be attractively landscaped to be compatible with the greenery of the city.

Save on your insurance

If you own a small car and are presently being insured by a firm which comes under the U. S. tariff, you may be able to cut your insurance costs substantially.

If you've been reading the Stars & Stripes lately, you've probably noticed several articles dealing with car insurance for GIs in Germany. Many of you own cars and know what it's like to have to pay through the nose for auto insurance. On the other hand, some of you may be buying cars soon and don't know where you can get a good deal on car insurance. This article is for both groups.

Private First Class David Midler of A Company, 4th Battalion, 6th Infantry, used to be insured with Allianz (a U. S. tariff firm) and paid DM 1200 per year for basic liability insurance. Midler checked out three other German insurance firms in Berlin with the assistance of Specialist 4 Edward Morse from the Public Affairs Office. The three companies they visited were Adler Feuer, Nord-Deutsche und Hamburg-Bremer, and Victoria Versicherung. None of these firms come under the U. S. tariff.

The first place they visited was Adler. Midler was told that he could be insured under German rates with one major clause: as soon as Adler Feuer was granted permission to charge tariff rates (expected some time in June) all military personnel holding policies with Adler would have to pay not 150 per cent of the basic rate, but 250 per cent! Any policies taken out before June would have to be terminated, and the new rate would then take effect.

That meant that Midler would have been able to insure his car for DM 800 per year (150 per cent) and save himself DM 400 over the premium from Allianz. However, this would be the case only until Adler was granted permission to charge tariff rates — then Midler would have had to pay the tariff rate of DM 1200 or 250 per cent of the basic rate (DM 1600 per year). Midler decided to try elsewhere.

The next place they went to was Victoria Versicherung. A company representative told them that his office had not received any instructions regarding the matter from his main office in Düsseldorf. When Morse and Midler asked to see the bureau chief, they were told that he was away on vacation till the middle of May. Morse and Midler realized they'd reached a dead end and went on to the next firm.

At Nord-Deutsche und Hamburg-Bremer they encountered no major problems. The firm said that Midler could be insured for liability, but not comprehensive or collision coverage. The price Nord-Deutsche quoted was virtually the same as Adler Feuer — 150 per cent or DM 720, excluding tax and any finance charge per year. Adler's rate was quoted with tax and finance charge included.

Midler wound up paying only 125 per cent of the basic rate, as he had held a U. S. driver's license for over three years. In addition, because Midler paid for a year's worth of coverage on the spot, there was no finance charge.

Midler's total charges were DM 600 (125 per cent of the basic rate), a DM 2 service charge, and DM 30.10 as a five per cent tax. He paid a total of DM 632.10 for a year's worth of basic liability coverage with Nord-Deutsche, as opposed to DM 1200 for the same coverage with Allianz. He saved himself over DM 550.

If you decide to look elsewhere, or if you're going to get insurance for the first time in Germany, call the Community Relations Office, Public Affairs. There are many forms which are necessary to obtain insurance coverage, and this office will be able to help you out. If you have any problems with a non-tariff insurance firm, if you're told you can't be insured (without a good reason), or if you just think you're being ripped-off, call Community Relations at military 6842.

Some of the firms in Berlin which (to our knowledge) have agreed to insure military personnel at German rates are as follows: The Feuerzität Berlin, 1 Berlin 30, Am Karlsbad 4-5; Nord-Deutsche und Hamburg-Bremer, 1 Berlin 15, corner of Kurfürstendamm and Uhlandstraße; Baseler Versicherungen, 1 Berlin 30, Tauentzienstraße (near Wittenbergplatz U-Bahn station), and VDK (Versicherung der Kraftfahrt), 1 Berlin 61, Mehringdamm 48.

Check some of these places out. The money you save by scouting around may be well worth it. —MM

Soccer club sweeps first ASL games

by MARTY BEST

The Berlin American Soccer Club swept its opening series last weekend in the American Soccer League (ASL) in Europe. The team proved it may be the team to beat as it blanked the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment from Fulda 4-0 Saturday and 5-0 Sunday.

The shutouts were the sixth and seventh straight in the last two months but the defense's true test was a 5-4 loss Wednesday against second place Draeger in the Berlin City League. That team is the highest scoring team in the league, in which the American club is in third place at 2-0-3.

The BASC played one of its worst games Saturday, but held a 2-0 halftime lead with the regular first teamers. Dan Scialetti had one of his easiest shutouts as Fulda's poor passing usually kept the ball far away from the net.

PETE MILHADO, a former first team, All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection from the University of Maryland, scored four goals but one was disallowed due to an offside call. Pete is one of the few civilians who plays in the ASL. The league rule is that four civilians may be on the roster but only two can play at any one time.

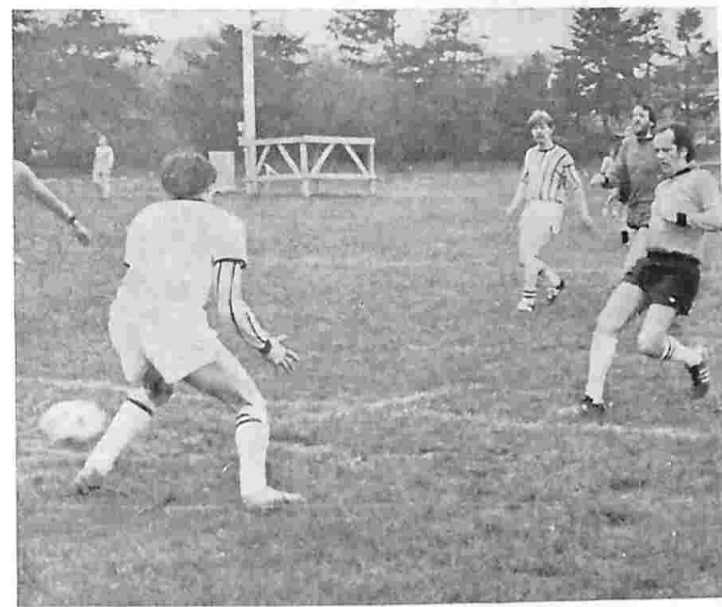

John Veenstra returned to the lineup and scored the first goal of the game as the offense continued its torrid scoring.

THE VAUNTED DEFENSE of Kasztelanski, Kreuscher, Salmon, Best and Chapman again registered a whitewash. Milhado, Newton and Reynolds were joined by newcomer Choo at the midfield and the attack was led by Veenstra, Kelly and Lepe.

Sunday's shutout was credited to goalie Willie Headon. The defense, anchored by ageless Vic Kasztelanski, included Chapman, Netter and Loone. The greatest surprise came from the three-goal performance of Dave Jung. Dave was his first starting opportunity and responded with an impressive hat trick.

Paddy Yarr added two goals with his usual Irish charm to top off a powerful Berlin debut. Quinn, Mackerer, Reynolds, Choo, Rodriguez and Nape rounded out Sunday's lineup.

Comment—The depth of the Berlin American Soccer Club is quite evident by last week's sowing. There were two almost completely different lineups. Last week the German police played BASC to a scoreless tie at the police home field in a friendly game. Their attitude and courtesy were the best I've seen of all clubs in 2½ years in Berlin. I hope BASC meets more teams like the police. For a pleasant change it was a great atmosphere of sportsmanship and congeniality.

BAAA news

Friendship Raceway began its 1974 season last Saturday with a "play day" or "shakedown day" for the drivers to find out how their cars would perform on the all-new track. Yet well over 100 spectators and officials were on hand to watch 15 drivers run their machines through their paces. Company A, Field Station Berlin, had the best showing with a total of five cars. However, only four were allowed to enter the track—a Honda needed a few technical corrections and was forced to sit out the day.

Several of last season's outstanding drivers were on hand to observe the new cars and drivers. The next play day will probably be May 18, when there should be double the turnout we had last Saturday. If you missed the first play day, mark May 18 on your calendar. Boy Scout Troop 46 and Cub Scout Pack 152 will operate the concessions, selling char-grilled hamburgers, cold soft drinks, snacks and beer.

Stock car division meeting

The stock car division of the Berlin American Automobile Association will hold a meeting at 11 a.m. tomorrow at the BAAA office, Building 943, Andrews Barracks. There will be an informal discussion of matters related to the beginning of the racing season at Friendship Raceway. The rules committee will conduct an initial inspection of stock cars—this inspection is mandatory prior to competing at the raceway. Finally, there will be a clean-up of the bay facilities and parking area.

This meeting will be open to all members and prospective members of the BAAA. The meeting is almost mandatory for individuals who have cars they intend to race at Friendship Raceway this season, but which have not received the initial technical inspection.

RACING THIS WEEKEND

Racing is the name of the game this weekend for the American Yacht Club Berlin (AYCB). Practice starts, spinnaker drills, and racing tactics lectures are all part of the second weekend of the 1974 AYCB racing season.

The season opened last weekend with five practice races to acquaint the sailors with each other and with the Wannsee Harbor boats. Five classes, including Menhirs, Pirates, Volkboats, Olympics and 470s, were raced by mixed crews of old and new sailors. The emphasis during this tune-up regatta period has been on helping the new sailors to race with the more experienced ones, rather than setting up unbeatable teams. This weekend's racing will give all skippers and crews a chance to further sharpen their skills before the AYCB points series begin. Full details on those series will be published here next week.

As this is written, plans are afoot to add a mast and yardarm to the Wannsee Harbor pier to improve the starting procedures for AYCB regattas. We hope to eliminate most of the difficulties encountered during the first weekend by the addition of this mast. A new and improved starting system, modeled on the one used at the Berlin British Yacht Club, is also planned. Anyone interested in the racing program, or wishing more information about the club itself, can contact me at 813-3544.

Young Berlin swimmers beat Canadians for first win

by JIM DONAHUE

Last Saturday the DYA-sponsored Berlin American Aquatic Club hosted a swimming meet with our North American rivals, the Canadians. The BAAC team had been beaten by this Canadian team once before, Nov. 3, 1973. That meet was held at Lahr, West Germany where the Canuks are stationed as part of the NATO forces in Europe.

In the previous meet the Americans were thoroughly beaten in almost every event and came in fourth in a five-team meet with the Lahr team coming out first.

This time the American swimmers totally dominated the meet. Their hard work and conditioning paid off with dividends, when in only one race did a Canadian swimmer catch any one of the BAAC swimmers from behind. The final score for the meet was BAAC 265, Lahr 108.

IN THE 45-EVENT MEET the American swimmers won 36 first places. In almost every case the winning time was a personal best for the swimmer. Derrick Fulton, the only BAAC boy in the 15 and over age group, lowered the BAAC record in the 100 meter freestyle for the third consecutive time, his and the team's best time recorded Saturday with a clocking of 1:09.4.

Some of the swimmers really dominated their age groups, winning just about every event in sight. Brian Storer won all five of the events he entered. Michelle Shachnow won four out of five. Karla Werner won all three events that she entered. Susan Platt and Klaus Erb both were three for four while Bucky La Hue won both of his events.

The swimmers who scored in double figures were: B. Storer 27, Michelle Shachnow 20, Klaus Erb 20, K. Werner 17, Robert Weinzetl 16, R. Holloway 16, D. Holsapple 16, A. Cochran 14, J. Baker 11, Judi Petti 11, Bucky La Hue 10 and B. Sullivan 10.

There are also a few swimmers who didn't win this time but are always on hand to gather in seconds and thirds. Often no one notices the contribution of the non-winner, but in swimming we don't overlook any competitor. Only one person can win the event but everyone shares in a team victory. The BAAC would be absolutely nowhere without those very significant others which include: Charles McLaughlin, Rich Weinzetl, Susan Petti, Kerry Castillo, Larry Bowman, Tori Lewane, Corrie Revak, Derrick Fulton, Karin Totman, Erich Stapleton, D. Shachnow, Kelly Wright, K. Martin, Sharon Baker, Trina Ray, Sandy Armstrong, Chris Rankin, Sue Lewane and Sheree Shachnow, all of whom scored points for the BAAC last Saturday.

Field Station teams humble Andrews foes

by V. A. DROSDIK, III

Assistant scorekeeper: Kevin McNickle

B Division Field Station teams proved to be the toughest on the rest of the league, staying close to each other in the standings this past week.

Thursday, May 2—Signal 3, Det. A 1

Signal scored all of its runs on errors, behind the two-hit, two-walk pitching of Larry Anderson. Fielding play of the game was a spectacular diving catch of a sinking line drive by Signal right fielder Danny Orosz.

2nd Engineers 20, Service 10

In a contest of who could walk most, the Engineers won, aided by several errors by Service. Tom Caldwell blasted his second and third home runs of the year, driving in six runs for the losers, while John Gonzales parked one over the left field fence and had five RBI for Engineers. Randy Hoff picked up the win in relief of Rich McDowell and had four RBI. Jim Ellis had a three-run double for Service.

Friday—H&S FSB 6, HHC Sp Trps 0

Jerry Alley pitched the first six innings with John Allen finishing the game for the four-hit shutout. Alley hit a homer and double and drove in a run, while Dennie Smith went two for three with one RBI.

287th MPs 11, Hospital 2

Charlie Spencer and Rod Clarida each collected three hits for the MPs while Roger Pack had a home run and two RBI for the MPs behind winner Jim Bradshaw.

Saturday—Co. A FSB 3, HQ2 2

HQ2 lost its third straight game, Glenn Roell getting the victory on the pitching rubber for Co. A. He and losing pitcher Presley Pippin gave up one earned run each. Don Medley collected three hits for Co. A, while top bat for HQ2 was Gene Swain with a pair of doubles.

2nd Engineers 13, Signal 6

Losing pitcher Larry Anderson and his two relievers could not find the strike zone, walking 16 Engineers and yielding nine hits to account for the loss. "Doc" Oestreich got three RBI for the Engineers, while teammates Chuck Deyo, winning pitcher Randy Hoff and John Gonzales each had two.

Co. B FSB 10, Service 3

Co. B collected 12 hits for winner Jerry Glascock, who struck out eight and gave up six Service hits. Glascock also hit a two-run homer.

Sunday—Det. A 9, Hospital 1

Det. A's bats exploded with a seven-run third inning, highlighted by a grand-slam home run by Mike Kelly, followed by solo shots by Ken Meyers and winning pitcher Gene Hill. 287th MPs 6, HHC Sp Trps 5

The HHC Thrillseekers took a 5-4 lead in the top of the seventh, but the MPs came back with two in the bottom of the inning for the victory. Winning pitcher Jim Bradshaw, who struck out 11 Thrillseekers, drove in three runs in the game, including the tying and winning runs in the seventh with a single.

H&S FSB 9, HQ2 3

H&S remained the only undefeated team at Andrews by handing HQ2 its fourth straight loss. Winner Jerry Alley spaced out eight hits and helped himself with three hits and one RBI. Jim Burt and Steve Chambers drove in two RBI each for H&S.

Monday—Co. A FSB 8, Signal 7

Co. A and Glenn Roell edged Signal in a game with many errors because of a rough field. Driving in two runs each were Don Medley for Co. A and Rene Redman for Signal Co.

Co. B FSB 2, 287th MPs 0

In the quickest game of the season, one hour flat, Co. B got three straight two-out singles in the top of the seventh to win. Victorious pitcher Jerry Glascock got eight strikeouts.

Tuesday—H&S FSB 10, Service 1

Service jumped to a 1-0 lead in the first inning on a one-run single by Tom Caldwell, but H&S played tight, errorless ball the whole game, pulling off three double plays, most this season for a team in a game. Alley got his sixth win without defeat and belted his second homer of the year, a two-run shot. Dennie Smith and Steve Chambers batted in two runs apiece, while Carl Swonke hit a solo home run for H&S.

Hospital 17, 42nd Engineers 9

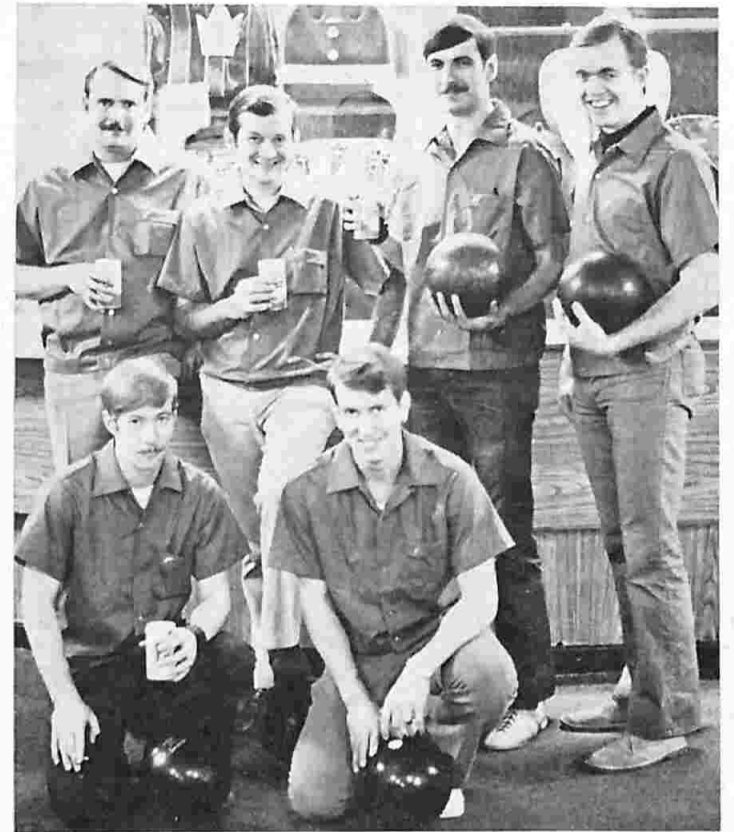

It was a long game involving seven errors by the Engineers and six by Hospital, as well as 14 Hospital batters walking. Mike Hutko got Hospital's first win while loser was Rich McDowell. Hutko hit a double for three runs while for Engineers, John Gonzales and Reggie Chunfat had two RBI each and McDowell three.

Det. A 4, Co. B FSB 2

In a major upset, Det. A's Gene Hill limited the vaunted Co. A batters to only three hits and two walks. Det. A batters collected 10 hits, including a pair of doubles and a single for Harold Buck and two singles and two RBI for Mike Kelly.

Co. B FSB 4, HHC Sp Trps 0

Jerry Glascock pitched his third shutout of the year, gave up only two hits and struck out nine in seven innings for the victory. Bud Markham drove in two runs for Co. B.

Smith of A-FSB at All-Army Trials

The Company A, Field Station Berlin, sports program continues to dominate the Berlin sports program. They are currently the Commanding General's Trophy winners and their bowling team is tops in the Andrews company-level league.

Team bowlers include Don Medley (176), Glenn Roell (178), Steve Smith (180), Dan Sonju (173), Eddy Reiff (174), Tom Rose (168) and Moe Miller (163). The Tigers led the league from start to finish, at the end holding a 26-point lead over runner-up H&S, FSB.

Steve Smith recently qualified for the All-Army trials being held at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo. Smith averaged just over 200 in the USAREUR All-Army trials held in Worms and placed second overall. He is part of the five-man team representing Europe.

Drill Team wins

by "QUAY DROPPER"

Once again behind the strong right arm of George "The Truck" Otis and the power hitting of "Raging" Raymond Chidress, Ken "Klean Kut" Kobbe and Irving "The Ignorant" Mosley, the 3-6 Drill Team Spinners ran its victory string to three in as many outings last Friday afternoon on Defender Field by pasting the "Tanks" from 40th Armor 12-1.

Otis ran his strikeout string to 28 for the season by fanning eight tankers and completely mastered the strong bats of the guys from Dahlem by yielding only three short singles.

"Raging" Raymond's long four bagger and sharp double accounted for four Spinner runs while "Klean Kut's" bat time and time again opened the door for big Drill Team rallies.

"The Ignorant One," who slices a softball like a 30 handicapper, drove in three more spinner runs and made an unbelievable backhand catch of a red hot tanker white streaker.

Charlie, C/94 tops at 2-6

by AMIGO DE LA CRUZ

The Guardian Softball League completed its third full week of play with a host of games and some change in the standings. Charlie Company started the week at the head of the pack but fell into a tie for first place with C/94 after the Cobras dropped a close one to HHC 8-7. The game, played under chilly, overcast conditions, got off to a rousing start when C Company's Tim Swihart belted a two-run homer to highlight a three-run first inning. In the bottom of the same frame HHC pushed across a single run to make it a 3-1 game. The score remained the same until HHC narrowed the gap in the bottom of the third with a single run. Thomas Cabnet singled and scored when Dennis Grabner followed with a double.

C Company strengthened their lead in the top of the fifth. A triple by Steve Bowen, a walk to Dan Merz, and a triple by Kevin Clinton produced two runs and gave C Company a 5-2 lead. However, in the bottom of the fifth HHC capitalized on a streak of wildness on the part of righthander Mike Kinney who issued three free passes to load the bases and set the stage for Dennis Grabner who promptly slapped a bases-loaded single up the middle. Paul Beswick followed with a triple to score Grabner. But the damage had already been done, and HHC led 6-5. They strengthened their lead with a couple of runs in the bottom of the sixth.

However, C Co. rallied in the top of the seventh when Steve Bowen and Duane Goubeaux opened the inning with back singles and scored when Dan Merz blasted a two-run double to center. Merz moved to third on the relay throw to the plate but was left stranded on third as two well-hit balls were turned into outs by an alert HHC outfield.

The game's leading hitters included HHC's Dennis Grabner and Paul Beswick, and C Company's Steve Bowen, Tim Swihart, and Harry Miller. Mike Kenney suffered the loss with relief help from Charles Frazier and HHC's David McConnell picked up the win in relief for HHC.

Other games

May 1—HHC 14, Co. B 3. Company B starter Robert Fitton gave up four unearned runs and three hits in the first inning to give HHC eight runs in the first inning and losing the game after five and half innings by the score of 14-3. George Daniel drove two runs and Wayne Myers, Dennis Grabner, David Chest, Jerry Reece and Thaddeus Broda drove one run a piece for the winners. Jesse Salis got one of the four hits and Jose Birriel hit two home runs and had three RBI for the losers. David McConnell was the winning pitcher.

May 2—C/94 9, CSC 6. Errors cost CSC the game on Thursday with each team having a few hits and walks. Ramiro Jimenez was the winning pitcher. Joseph Erwin and Dennis Flynn drove in two runs each, while John Terry helped out with a home run and three RBIs.

May 3—Co C 7, Co B 0. Company C won by forfeit Friday night.

Defender League

The roaring antics of the Defender Softball League continue in spite of the rainy weekends with Chargin' Charlie still undefeated, followed closely by the Drill Team, also undefeated. If you cast an eye on the total points so far, it appears that the Drill Team has the strongest offensive play, and Chargin' Charlie the strongest defense. This could make their meeting the 24th of this month very interesting.

El Club Latino Unidos en Berlin

El Club Latinos Unidos en Berlin es ahora una realidad, después de muchos esfuerzos se ha podido establecer un club que proveera a la comunidad Latina de Berlin, actividades dirigidas a mantener y cultivar la cultura Latina. En reunion celebrada el pasado 26 de Marzo de 1974, bajo una concurrida audiencia, se nombro la directiva que llevara las riendas del club, por lo menos un año.

Para celebrar este acto se llevo acabo una fiesta bailable que ademas incluyo una cena constituida de varios platos tipicos. La fiesta fue muy concurrida, al mismo tiempo tuvimos el honor de recibir la visita del General de Brigada, Robert D. Stevenson. El General, como se puede observar en la fotografia, dio la impresion de sentirse muy en ambiente.

Debido al ambiente jovial y a la buena musica provista por el Trio "Peru" la fiesta se prolongo hasta la una y treinta de la mañana.

El proposito del club es promover el entendimiento de la cultura y las tradiciones Latinas, por medio de la participacion de todos los grupos étnicos, en actividades culturales, sociales, y otras. Asimismo estimular participacion de la comunidad por medio de los esfuerzos unidos del club Latinos Unidos en Berlin.

Aprovechamos la oportunidad para invitarles a que atiendan una de nuestras reuniones y puedan apreciar mas a fondo las razones por las cuales el club existe. Si necesitan mas informacion pueden llamar a SP4 Luis A. Faisca, Presidente, a los telefonos 6201/6803/6750, o a la secretaria, Señora Beatriz Wilhelm, telefono 307-1540.

BG ROBERT D. STEVENSON AT LATINO NIGHT

After much concerted effort, the "Latinos Unidos En Berlin" Club is now a reality. The objective of this club is to provide the Latin community of Berlin with activities geared to maintaining and cultivating the Latin culture.

The governing body was elected at a meeting on May 26. These positions are effective for one year. To celebrate the event, a gala party was held at the Starlight Grove. The party consisted of a buffet dinner with several Latin specialties, music by the Trio Peru and an evening of dancing. The celebration was honored with the presence of Brigadier General Robert D. Stevenson, who joined heartily into the merriment. The happy atmosphere and lively music lasted until the club closed at 1:30 a.m.

The purpose of the club is to promote greater understanding of the culture and heritage of the "Latino" people by encouraging members of all ethnic groups to become members of "Latino Unidas en Berlin." As members they can participate in the many cultural and social activities presented.

To stimulate community participation in the "Latinos Unidas en Berlin," we take this opportunity to extend an invitation to every member of the Berlin American community to attend our meetings, where you can learn about the club.

For more information on the club and to learn how you can join, call Luis Faisca, the club chairman, at Berlin military 6201, 6803 or 6750; or Mrs. Beatriz Wilhelm, the club secretary, at 307-1540.

City to mark blockade end

Tomorrow and Sunday, the Berlin city government (Senat) will sponsor an expanded commemoration and celebration marking the 25th anniversary of the lifting of the Berlin Blockade.

The Senat has invited the U. S., British and French ambassadors to Germany; General Lucius Clay, former U. S. military governor in Germany; retired U. S. Air Force Generals Tunner and Howley, who were prominent figures in the American airlift operations; and other Allied and German airlift luminaries.

Tomorrow evening, a large reception hosted by the governing mayor of Berlin will be held in a hangar at Tempelhof Central Airport. The invitees will consist of approximately 1,000 Allied and German dignitaries and participants in the airlift.

The following day, an expanded wreath-laying ceremony will take place at the airlift memorial adjacent to the airport. Immediately following the wreath-laying, an isolated area of TCA will be open to the public for viewing of airlift exhibits and Allied aircraft.

Delayed Entry extension

The Army recently announced an extension of the Delayed Entry Program, from a maximum of 180 days to 270 days.

The new policy gives recruiters greater flexibility in providing the recruit with the Army school or station of his choice. The time extension also helps the Army project more accurately school seat availability.

You Buyee You Keepee

Army regulations strictly forbid the turnover of U. S. taxfree items such as coffee, cigarettes, and Class VI to unauthorized personnel. Additionally, German law renders it unlawful to sell or transfer to German Nationals serially numbered items, including electronic sound equipment, electric appliances, and watches.

Recently there have been indications that some members of this command have been involved in violations of this nature. This may be the result of the devaluation of the dollar; however, it will not be tolerated.

Everyone should be advised of the seriousness of such illegal practices. Offenses of this nature may result in loss of Post Exchange, commissary and Class VI privileges. Offenders may also expect punishment under the Uniform Code of Military Justice and/or expulsion from Berlin.

New salute poop

WASHINGTON (ANF)—Many soldiers, officer and enlisted alike, favor a return to the more traditional military courtesies. Accordingly, a modification to the current Army saluting policy has been announced.

All Army personnel are now required to salute when they meet and recognize persons entitled to the salute even in official vehicles. The practice of saluting officers in official vehicles (recognized individually by rank or by identifying vehicles plates or flags) is considered an appropriate courtesy and will be observed.

The change deleting this requirement had caused confusion in the field.

Salutes are not required to be rendered by or to personnel who are driving or riding in privately owned vehicles, except by gate guards who will render salutes to recognized officers in all vehicles unless duties are of such a nature as to make the salute impractical.

When military personnel are acting as drivers of moving vehicles, they should not initiate a salute.

Crossing the Channel--in kayaks?

by RALPH CALLAWAY

Yesterday marked the departure of 18 men from Company B, 3rd Battalion, 6th Infantry, for the Cliffs of Dover, England, to participate in Adventure Training. The adventure? A crossing of the English Channel — in kayaks!

Culminating more than a year of planning and coordination under the leadership of First Lieutenant Gary Wright, he and 23 men will attempt to cross the English Channel in two-man kayaks. So what, you say, people have crossed the Channel swimming. True, but it is an adventure, none-the-less, since the Channel has never been the most favorable stretch of water to cross in any fashion. Tides, underwater and surface currents all combine to make any crossing of the Channel a strenuous activity, so risky, in fact, that there are only a few times a year when such a crossing can be made.

The men will be staying at Connaught Barracks, a British Army installation on the South Coast of England, and from here will do the additional training needed, and make the actual attempt. The dates they are hoping for (and the dates when the tides are most favorable for the crossing) are May 14-17. The large number of days allocated are to provide for many possible holds to avoid bad weather.

Escorting the men in the actual crossing attempt will be Captain R. Brickell in a 50. ft fishing trawler, with the Coast Guard Naval Rescue Service on call in the event of any serious mishaps during the attempt.

For the past two weeks (since April 20) the men have been engaged in training for the attempt. This began with a swimming test on the 20th, followed by assembly of the kayaks at the Wannsee Recreation Area on the 22nd. Since then, the men have been engaged in confidence training (if you can't trust yourself and your kayak, who can you trust?) and classes in water safety. For physical conditioning, the men have been working out on the Havel on courses that began as only a short two mile stretch, and finished with a 22 mile circuit of the Havel that they completed in five hours.

The kayaks the men will be crossing in are improved versions of those used during World War II. They are now more refined and use synthetic materials for the hulls and plastics for the outer skins, with flotation devices built in to make them unsinkable.

The best of luck is wished the men in their attempt at the crossing.
