Our VF Queens for 1974

The German and American Queens who will reign at "Fiesta San Antonio," this year's German-American Volksfest, were crowned here last Thursday.

Miss Maureen Bartsch was coronated as the German Queen, and Mrs. Marilyn Kay Hover in the American category.

Brigadier General Robert D. Stevenson, commander of the Berlin Brigade, officiated at the crowning ceremony.

Miss Bartsch is an accountant with the Comptroller Division. She was born in Rhodesia and attended high school and college in Salisbury. Maureen is a part-time model, plays tennis, and is interested in painting.

Marilyn Hover arrived in Berlin last July and is the wife of Specialist Four John P. Hover of the Berlin Brigade's 287th Military Police Company. Marilyn graduated from high school and attended college in Visalia, California. She likes to ski on snow or water, plays tennis, and enjoys "most outdoor activities."

Runners-up were Jutta Slade, American, and Anke Enzian, German. Mrs. Slade is a secretary at American Forces Network radio in Berlin and Miss Enzian is employed with the Engineer and Installation Division.

The Volksfest Opens July 25 and runs through August 11.

BASC undefeated in ASL; Sweeps weekend series

by MARTY BEST

The Berlin American Soccer Club (BASC) swept last weekend's series with Furth, West Germany, for BASC's fifth straight weekend sweep. BASC won handily Saturday with a 9-0 shutout but was given a scare in Sunday's 5-2 squeaker. BASC is now 10 wins, no losses in the American Soccer League with four games remaining.

BASC is the class of the league by far, from what I've seen. Many of the old timers have played together for more than two years and the teamwork shows. There are three divisions in the ASL so if BASC continues to put it all together, it has a good shot at the European crown. BASC is full of depth and continues to win with different line-ups for every game.

The showdown will be July 20 and 21. Schweinfurth comes to town with an 8-0 record, thus giving BASC its strongest test. Games will be at McNair at 10 a.m. Saturday and 2 p.m. Sunday, July 20-21.

Last weekend Bob Taylor was goalie in both games. Bob has really come along well and is probably the best punter in the league now. He saved a lot of beautiful shots last weekend.

Newton top scorer

Ken Salmon, Larry Newton, John Reynolds and Paddy Yarr each had two goals last Saturday with Lepe adding one. On Sunday, Newton added two more goals. Larry isn't slowing down by any means since bringing his bride to Berlin. He has scored three, two and two goals respectively in his brief stint as a newlywed.

Lepe, Bermudez and Pete Milhado each chipped in a goal in the downpour on Sunday. BASC was up 3-0 at halftime but Furth came out in the rain and scored two quick goals, continuing the tremendous pressure. Rolf Kreuzscher suited up at that point and the defense held the rest of the way.

Tonight (Friday) is a big game in the German Soccer League in the city. BASC plays at 7 p.m. on Lobeck Straße in Kreuzberg against BSC. BSC is in first place while BASC is in third in the 13-team division. It should be a great game and if all of BASC's soccer jocks show up the team should be able to hold its own against the mother land.

Berlin women win first softball game

The Berlin Women's Softball Team won its first game of the season last Saturday by beating Frankfurt 11-4. The winning pitcher in the game played at Andrews was Ruth Verbel. Leading the offense was Lynn Crepps who banged out a pair of singles and a home run in four at-bats to drive in four runs.

Lynn was also the Berlin batting star Sunday with a two-run homer, but to no avail as Frankfurt edged the Divided City girls 4-3. Losing pitcher was Ruth Verbel.

Berlin will go to Stuttgart next weekend, July 13-14. It will host Landstuhl here for two exhibition games this weekend of July 27-28.

Booster Club membership drive

by JANICE BRANAM

School's out and summer is here . . . time to forget school and its activities for at least two whole months! For most parents and students this is true, but for those people involved in planning and preparing for next year it is a different story. Such is the case when it comes to the Berlin American High School Cubs Athletic Booster Club, better known as "Booster Club." The new officers and chairmen for the '74-'75 school year are working this summer preparing for the coming sports year.

The current membership drive for the new year will begin very shortly. During the drive you may purchase a membership card for $ 1 per membership or $5 for a family. These cards not only entitle you to entry to any and all sporting events sponsored by Berlin American High School, but you are also then a member of the Booster Club. You can and should attend the membership meetings and you can and should volunteer your service to help with the work involved in all the activities of the Booster Club.

WHAT IS THE BOOSTER CLUB'S activities? Many: Volksfest booth, TCA Open House booth, concession stands during games, etc. Just what does the Booster Club do with all that money? It provides special support not otherwise available for the interscholastic athletic programs of the Berlin Cubs, both male and female.

The Booster Club was constituted in 1970 by a group of interested parents and school officials with the expressed purpose and objective of promoting and assisting the Cubs athletic programs. One of its purposes is to encourage family interest in school sports so that parents and students will support the athletic programs of the Cubs either through active participation or as spectators.

What specifically does the Club do to support the Cubs? Well, during the '73-'74 sports year as of April 30, a total of $4,540.98 had been spent on trips, equipment and supplies and the sports year was not over. To be specific, a total of $603.50 was spent on football, $1,349.20 for basketball, $568.17 for golf, $487.60 for wrestling, $631.51 for girls basketball. These are just a few of the items the Booster Club did do for the Cubs during the sports year.

Membership in the Club is voluntary and open to any person who is a member of the Berlin Allied (U. S., British, French) community. The administration of the club is the responsibility of the club officers. This year's club officers are President, LTC D. E. Malloy; First Vice-President, Major W. A. Burhans; Second Vice-President, TSgt. M. Weakley; Secretary, Mrs. C. H. Martin, Jr.; and Treasurer, Mrs. A. T. Virgilio.

THE BERLIN AMERICAN HIGH School Cubs Athletic Booster Club invites you to join with them in supporting the Cubs during the coming year! When you purchase your current membership card there will be space provided for you to fill in if you are interested in volunteering to help. If you will check this space, you will be called. If you are not contacted or if you wish to volunteer prior to the beginning of the membership drive, please contact one of the above officers. Your help will be needed and appreciated during the up-coming Volksfest and the Open House at TCA in September.

Be watching for the beginning of the membership drive for the new year and also for our other activities. By joining and helping out you are serving a good cause and it makes you feel good while doing so.

They run with Army team

by KATHY WALSH

How would you like a job that allows you to return to "the world" every so often on TDY status? Specialist 4 Willy Rios, the Athletic Director at the Dependent Youth Activities, does.

Willy belongs to the United States Army Track & Field Team, and returns to the states to compete against various college teams. The team is part of the Army Sports Program, which has teams in wrestling, bowling, golf, and any sport imaginable.

Willy runs the mile in 4:06, the half-mile in 1:52, and the 15-hundred meter in 3:47. He won the 1973 Berlin Brigade Combat Cross Country Meet with a time of 15 minutes, 38 seconds for the 2 1/2-mile course.

"The Track & Field Team is a 30-man team, composed of Army personnel from all over the world," said Willy. "We train for three months by competing against college teams in the states."

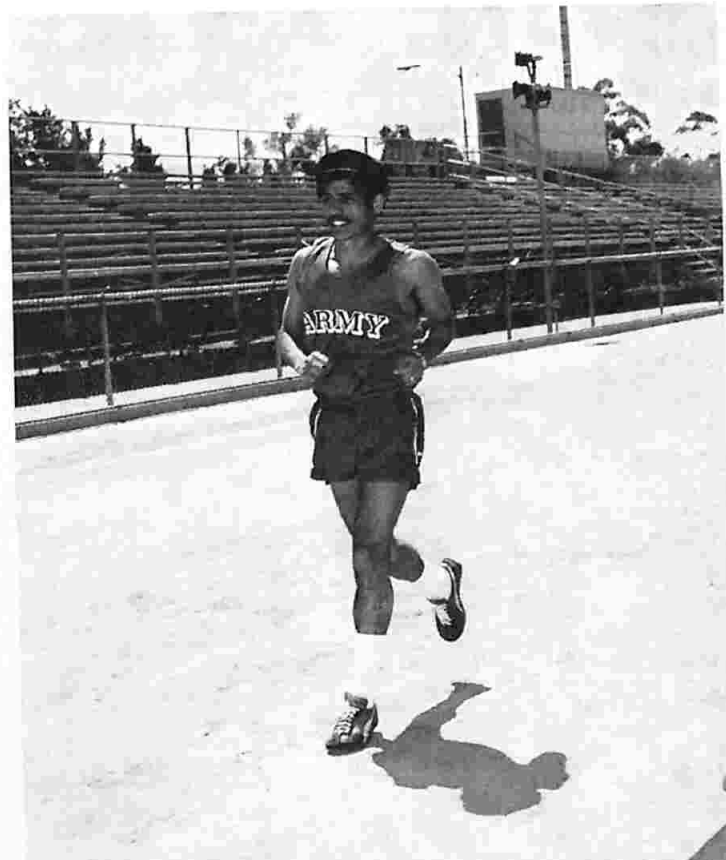

The goal of the team is to qualify for the World Military Games held each year in one of the NATO countries. Last year the games were held in Florence, Italy.

Willy hails from Cidra, Puerto Rico, and ran the 15-hundred meter for his native country in the 1968 Olympics in Mexico City.

Last Saturday, he ran the 15-hundred meter in the Berlin City Championship, coming in third with a time of 3:51. "My best run," he said, "was at the Bakersfield Classic in Bakersfield, California. I ran the 15-hundred meter in 3:40."

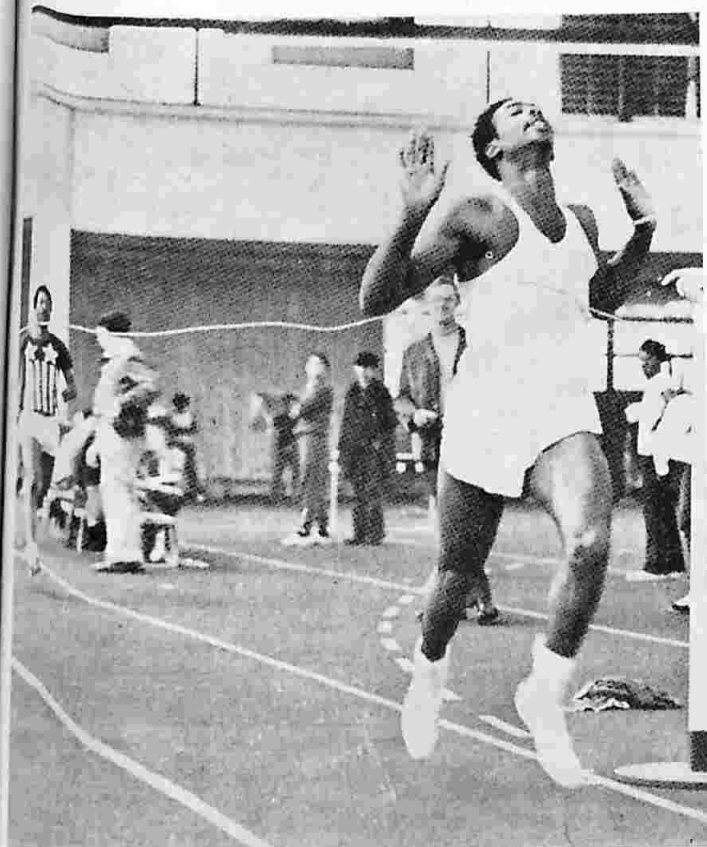

While majoring in physical education and sociology at Oklahoma Baptist University, Willy was named All-American twice.

Willy has been in the Army for two years, and starts graduate school in September at Eastern Illinois University, majoring in physiological research. He is currently practicing for the German Championship in Hannover, West Germany, July 28-29.

WILLY RIOS PRACTICES his running while at Ft. McArthur, the home base of the United States Army Track & Field Team. From there, the team goes to various colleges in the West to compete in track and field events.

DONALD FISHER OF CHARLIE 4-6 is a member of the U. S. Army Track & Field Team. He won the 200-meter dash and the 400-meter dash at last year's Berlin Brigade Track and Field Championships. Fisher says one of his greatest ambitions is to compete in the 1976 Olympics.

Medics prove skills

by RALPH CALLAWAY

What is the physically hardest qualification test in the Army? Hint—it includes a 12 mile road march and a PT test. If you guessed the EIB (Expert Infantryman Badge) you were close, but wrong. Twenty-three men from the Berlin Brigade went to Darmstadt, West Germany, last week to take part in the Expert Field Medical Badge test, and they can tell you how hard it is.

The test was conducted by the 31st Medical Group, headquartered in Darmstadt, and was designed to be a comprehensive test of both an individual's knowledge and ability to perform the mission of a small unit medic in the field. The test isn't just medical either. Some of the subjects covered include map reading and the use of a compass day and night; chemical, biological and radiological defense; communications, including use of a field radio and telephone; the phonetic alphabet, and writing field messages; military courtesy and discipline; and military intelligence which included the handling of prisoners of war and escape and evasion techniques.

With the non-medical subjects out of the way, the men who try for this badge must then tackle the meat of the problem—the things they have to do in the field as a medic.

Do it right

For example, how would you treat a man with multiple wounds as he lies in a foxhole or bunker? And do it right so he has a chance of making it to a hospital for more comprehensive care? The medic has to be able to apply those measures in the field that will keep a man alive long enough for a doctor to treat him. Just the little things like treating bleeding and shock, applying dressings—both the standard ones and those you have to "create" out of what is laying around you, giving the man plasma in the field, or treating those people who forgot to take their salt tablets in the desert—or put on their parka for the Alpine snows. The little things like putting on a splint or securing a broken limb so that moving the man won't make the injury worse.

The hardest job in the world

After he's treated these little things, he has to do the hardest job in the world—move his patient into the hospital or field aid station. This is what makes the test one of the most difficult in the Army. Think of all those things you encounter in a walk in the woods like low trees, fences, and brush. Now complicate that with the things that an army in the field puts out during a war—minefields, wire entanglements, walls, and tunnels. Now

WATCH YOUR HEAD — Some of Berlin's medics practice bringing a "wounded" man out of a "combat" area. The obstacle course was just one part of the grueling test taken make it even more difficult with a little shell fire, and snipers in the trees to keep you alert. Have you got the picture? Virtually impassable terrain. All you have to do is carry a man on a litter through all of that and keep him alive while you do it.

The right way

I really have to respect a man who wears that little badge proving he was able to do all that. Passing a comprehensive written test as all of these men did is one thing, it proves he has the theoretical knowledge to take care of me if I'm injured myself in the field. But, that isn't really enough. Many people who aren't trained medics can pass that written test. The field test is what you have to respect. These men went and did the things in the field, under the jaundiced eyes of senior medics from the 31st who weren't about to make it easy on anyone. Although, if a mistake was made they were quick to correct it and show the right way to do it.

We now have 17 more men in the Berlin Command that I trust to get me to the doctor. From the hospital: Donald Picco and Earl Hines Jr. Over at the 2nd Battalion, David Clark, Dennis Grabner, George Leuter (who took the test on his leave time), and Raymond Murphy. In the 3rd Battalion you can look to Emmerich Amacker, John Dillender, David Cliborne, Michael Farham, Mack Moore and James Walker. And in the 4th Battalion: Burke Minns, Edwin Rivera, Ron Burlingame and William Thomas.

Library offers reading program

by MARGA DANESY

Our Summer Reading Program begins on July 15 at the Main Library, Berlin Command. All 1st-7th graders are welcome to register as soon as they have read this note.

We are going to have magic trees in a magic forest and it is up to the 1st-4th graders to fill the trees with big red apples, fairies, butterflies, and lovely birds. The 4th-7th graders will help to set the scenery of the forest with elves and little animals. By the time the end of our Summer Reading Program comes along, we shall have a big, colorful panel for our children's corner, which you all helped to create.

What must you do to achieve this? The 1st-4th graders should turn in a drawing or a report, and the 4th-7th graders should turn in a drawing and a report of at least two paragraphs for every book you have read. When you have read seven books, you will get a certificate. For those who read more than seven, there will be special prizes, and the top three readers get extra special prizes.

Only those books on a special shelf in the library count toward your certificate and prizes. The lady in charge is Mrs. Danesy, so please give your reports and illustrations to her.

On the 20th and 27th of July, and on the 3rd, 10th, 17th, and 24th of August, we will have a story hour at 11 a.m.

The Summer Reading Program ends on Saturday, August 31 with a party and the presentation of certificates and prizes. We hope to see you on this special day at 10 a.m. at the Main Library.

Have fun and keep reading!

Valleys lure hikers in Bavarian Alps

If you're not looking up, you're looking down into valleys—that's the pleasure of vacationing at the Berchtesgaden Recreation Area, where little of the land is level.

Whether a hiker, golfer, tennis player, or just an innocent bystander, you can't help but enjoy the scenic beauty of the Berchtesgaden area in the midst of the Bavarian Alps.

For a good orientation of the area, go to the summit of the Rossfeld Mountain. On foot or by car, the trip along the switchback road, Rossfeld Ringstrasse, is a thrilling one. On one side of the roadway are natural craggy rock walls; on the other side sheer cliffs plunge into the valley. The dizzying downward view makes many hikers and motorists feel as though they are in a cable car.

Like most mountains surrounding Berchtesgaden, Rossfeld summit is a plateau rather than a peak. From here you can see Austria to the east and Germany to the west. Beyond the Berchtesgaden valley, Koenigssee (King's Lake) glistens like an emerald.

Back into the town of Berchtesgaden, hilly cobblestone streets dip and curve past quaint houses and shops, stepped on gentle slopes.

The scenic tour of the area has just begun with the orientation trip up, around, and down the Rossfeld. Some of the best views of the town and countryside await you at the AFRC hotels. The General Walker and Skytop are both situated about 1800 feet above the valley on the Obersalzberg. The Berchtesgadener Hof is centrally located in town and offers a view of the surrounding mountains. More on the outskirts of town is the Alpine Inn located in a wooded area with the Watzmann towering in the background.

For your vacation reservations in the scenic AFRC resort, contact the BRA Billeting Office, APO 09029 or telephone B'Gaden Military (2538) 623 or 823.

NEUSCHWANSTEIN CASTLE, said to be the most beautifully located castle in the world, it was used as a model by

'Mad' King Ludwig's creations in Bavaria are near AFRCs

It's been said a man's home is his castle, and this is proven to be true by the magnificent buildings that were created throughout Europe over the centuries.

The Armed Forces Recreation Center runs tours to three of these castles, built by King Ludwig II of Bavaria.

Ludwig was known as the "Mad King of Bavaria" and many of his extravagant tastes were heavy burdens on the financial resources of his kingdom. However, it cannot be denied that today his three castles stand as magnificent monuments to his love of elegant things.

Two of the tours originate from the Garmisch Recreation Area to Neuschwanstein Castle and Linderhof Castle, while the third, Herrenchiemsee, necessitates a boat ride from the Chiemsee Lake Hotel to tiny Herren Island.

Neuschwanstein Castle is, of the three, the most impressive from the outside with its asymmetrical turrets, archways, and windows. High on a rocky spur on the side of a mountain, it is said to be the most beautifully located castle in the world and was used as a model by Walt Disney for his fairytale castle in Disneyland.

Linderhof Castle was built, as was Herrenchiemsee, more along the lines of a palace. The grounds are exquisitely landscaped, and the interior, with fabulous crystal chandeliers and gold plated furniture evidences Ludwig's extravagance. Linderhof was said to be the "Mad King's" favorite residence, although Herrenchiemsee was his dream castle and home during the days before his still questioned death.

Herrenchiemsee was built as a replica of French King Louis XIV's palace at Versailles, in an attempt to show the world that the King of Bavaria could live in just as much magnificence as other kings of the world.

To take one of the AFRC castle tours is to take a trip into the gorgeous elegance of the past that was a way of life to the nobility of long ago. —AFRC

Volkfest to host USO show

"The Lamanite Generation," a unique Indian show from Brigham Young University featuring exciting musical talent from more than 60 Indian tribes throughout the United States, will appear in Berlin August 5-11 during the Volkfest.

The stop is part of their six-week tour of USAR-EUR USAFE installations in Germany beginning July 9.

Indian, Polynesian, and Mexican music
Sponsored by USO and Department of Defense in cooperation with Brigham Young University, the "Lamanite Generation" presents a superb and memorable program of traditional Indian, Polynesian and Mexican music and dances—artfully and imaginatively blended with the contemporary sounds of the exciting 70's.

Traveled extensively
The first "Lamanite Generation" show appeared in 1969, touring Indian reservations with a small BYU troupe under the direction of Jane Thompson—a veteran of some 18 USO and DOD sponsored shows. Since then "Lamanite Generation" students from the Mormon school have traveled extensively throughout the U. S. and Canada—and delighted Midwestern audiences while appearing on various TV programs.

Indian tribal affiliations represented in the show include such famous American history book names as the Navajo, Commanche and Cherokee.

Will appear on "Niteside"

The BYU group will hold a press conference at AFN Europe Headquarters in Frankfurt on July 8, where they will record several musical numbers and make a guest appearance on AFN's popular "Niteside" show.

More movies . . .

THE LONG GOODBYE, rated R — Elliot Gould interprets Raymond Chandler's notorious detective, Philip Marlowe, in the screen adaption of what is considered to be Marlowe's best story. The involved plot has the detective trying to unravel the mystery behind the disappearance of a big money gambler and an apparent suicide. The suspense thriller is punctuated with laughs and action. Also stars Nina Van Pallandt.

THE DARING DOBERMANS, revival, rated G — The canny hounds are learning new tricks. This time their goal is $200,000 worth of illegal campaign funds. The plotting and execution of the caper is full of excitement and suspense and the twist ending puts a neat cap on it all. Starring Joan Caulfield and Tim Considine.

PROVING THAT AMERICAN Indians cannot be stereotyped in any way, four beauties in the Brigham Young University Program Bureau "Lamanite Generation" pose prior to leaving on a USO/DOD tour. # WANTED

Young women to dance in Volksfest

If you're a young woman (or young at heart), here's your chance to perform before a live audience at the 14th Annual German-American Volksfest.

Dancers are desperately needed to perform in "Fiesta San Antonio," July 22-August 11. No experience is necessary as you'll be taught by experts in the field of entertainment. All you need is a willingness to learn and a desire to perform in this year's Volksfest activities. If you have prior experience, all the better.

For further information call military 3550 before July 12.

Why don't you try out? Who knows, maybe you'll be discovered.

New taxi rates now being charged

A new rate increase has been announced for Berlin's taxis.

Under the old rate, the meters of the taxis were turned on while the taxi was in route to pick up passengers, and an additional charge of DM 1 was required for taxis ordered in advance.

In addition, there were two standard rates for Berlin taxis. Rate One was used on normal working days between the hours of 6 a.m.-midnight, and the initial charge on the meter was DM 2.40 with the charge of each kilometer being DM 0.85. Rate Two was used on Sundays and legal holidays between the hours of 12:01-6 a.m., and the rate was DM 1.07.

However, taxis now are equipped with new meters, and drivers of the old-type meter taxis will use a conversion table booklet showing the old amount (set in blue ink), and the new amounts (set in red ink). The driver will convert the amount shown on the meter to the corresponding amount in red ink on the conversion table.

In the case of a dispute, the passenger should pay the requested amount and ask for a receipt. A careful note should be made of the license number of the taxi. The receipt should then be forwarded with all pertinent data to the office of the Provost Marshall for investigation.

Be smart--practice summer safety

Now that summer is here and the final bell of the school year has sounded, those perpetual balls of energy will be getting down to the more serious business of baseball, bicycling, swimming, and outdoor play in general.

Now is the time you'll want to give even more thought to your child's safety. As the National Safety Council points out, summer is the time of the year when children between the ages of 5 and 14 are most prone to accidents.

A study made by the Council reveals the following about play accidents:

- More than one-third of the fatalities occur during the summer quarter of the year.
- The yard is the most dangerous play area . . . much more so than inside the house or on the school playground.
- The most common reason for play accidents is that those responsible for overseeing the child's play are not on the job.

What can you do to protect your child from a serious accident this summer? The National Safety Council suggests a number of tips for some of the more popular summer play activities.

Play areas

Warn your child to stay away from excavations, construction sites, industrial property, empty houses, abandoned caves or pits and railroad property. Small children do not realize the potential hazards of tin cans, broken glass, pieces of pipe and pieces of lumber with splinters and nails. To protect your child, rake your yard or your child's play area periodically and keep containers of refuse tightly closed and inaccessible.

Bicycles

Bike accidents skyrocket in the summer. In four out of five cases, the victim is violating a law or a safety rule.

As your child learns to ride, help him until he gains skill and confidence. Most important teach him or her the rules of safe bike riding—to ride on the right side of the street single file; to obey traffic signs; to signal intentions; never to ride two on a bike, and not to indulge in horseplay.

Playground equipment

The greatest menace for children from two through six years of age is playground equipment. Parents should never let this age group go to the playground alone. It is essential that you establish safety rules for your child on the use of play equipment and then enforce them at all times.

Water safety

Each year in the United States, approximately 2,000 boys and girls under 15 years of age drown, most of them because they cannot swim well enough to save themselves in an emergency. Encourage your child to learn to swim. The DYA this summer is providing properly supervised instruction in swimming.

Don't send your child off to the swimming pool alone. Ensure that he or she swims with a buddy and then only in authorized swim areas with a lifeguard on duty.

The great outdoors

Even a trip to the local forest can hold some major surprises for the unsuspecting. Children should be taught about avoiding insect bites, poisonous plants and wild animals. Outdoor excursions and camping should be properly supervised by adults who are wise in the ways of the great outdoors.

Big 10 is out, but you can still save

Even though the big ten savings program is no longer in existence, there is some good news for thrifty U. S. Forces personnel who may be looking for a substitute savings program.
